

Ethical charter of the group

- 1. Considering God as the highest supervisor
- 2. Using the university environment for study, learning, growth and development
- 3. Respect student and professional dignity
- 4. Observing respect, politeness, dignity, honesty in behavior and speech and interaction with colleagues
- 5. Helping to solve group issues and problems and creating a friendly and respectful environment without convulsions in the group
- 6. Prioritizing the task of studying over any other activity
- 7. Respecting the teacher's rights and honoring his academic position
- 8. Observing order and discipline and avoiding any disruptive actions in the classroom
- 9. Attending the class on time and complying with the topics related to each unit
- 10. Alignment with the teacher's curriculum
- 11. Continuous spiritual and scientific efforts for the optimal and scientific growth of the group
- 12. Compliance with ethics and honesty in education, research and scientific activities
- 13. Having a sense of responsibility for educational and research obligations
- 14. Efforts for professional development, especially knowledge and learning and teaching skills
- 15. Compliance with moral and educational obligations between students and professors